Brief overview

Besides hotels, Tianjin offers the following types of accommodation:

- Serviced apartments and houses
- Non-serviced apartments and houses

Serviced accommodations will include bedding, cooking utensils, crockery and housekeeping, some may also provide breakfast and laundry services. The rent usually covers utilities and access to the fitness club. This type of accommodation is available for single night stay as well as long term.

Non-serviced accommodations are mainly privately owned, however some can be part of a housing company. This type of accommodations are available fully or partially furnished as well as unfurnished, they do not provide housekeeping but an Ayi (Maid) can be hired. Some of the compounds have fitness clubs where you can purchase a membership. They have property management on site which provide security, mail delivery, rubbish disposal, general maintenance of the buildings, grounds and the gardens. The TV package included may not provide International channels but subscription can easily be purchased.

Internet access is widely available in Tianjin properties. However non-serviced accommodations will require an application request. E-SMART provide Wi-Fi installation and IT support.

Helping you with housing and relocation needs in Tianjin, is E-SMART's primary professional focus. Call us now with your needs. E-SMART provides easy "One-stop" services, ranging from transportation for your recce tours or locating a home, following on with consultations and support for daily needs, and including service needs when you need to leave for your next destination.
